

BOCCE

You don't have to be ITALIAN
to play Bocce!!!!

“Hellooooo Foxwood”

What a great turnout Tuesday nite, May 15th at 6 pm, our 3rd year, 2012 Bocce Tournament.

What a nite; everyone came today, ending up with laughs, sharing thoughts, and being with good friends. We thank Peter Mastropalo and his crew for rebuilding our 3rd Bocce court. “Great job Guys.”

Tom Van Riper and Joe Spano want you to come out on Monday nights at 6 pm to play horseshoes and on Saturday mornings at 10 am also.

Foxwood played Horseshoes against Saddle Lakes, Riverhead, at our courts and guess what folks, we took almost all of the games from them. Nice job guys. That’s where teamwork begins.

See you at the courts,
Joe Spano (#97)

Dear Foxwood Executive Committee,

I'm deeply touched by the beautiful plaque given to me. Producing the “Foxytales” was a true labor of love and a privilege.

Thank you, thank you, thank you!

Love, Dianne
