

June/July 2013

Attention all Foxwood Homeowners:

It has come to my attention that HOA dues have not been paid by some homeowners. If you do not wish to become a HOA dues paying homeowner, and you do not wish to have anything to do with the Foxwood community, that is okay, it is your prerogative to do so.

However, if you do wish to pay your dues, the deadline is JUNE 15, 2013. The dues are $10.00 per person and should be delivered or mailed to Eugene Rausch, house #78. Should you decide not to pay, then you will not be able to attend ANY function that is subsidized by the homeowners association. You will not be able to pay your dues for the July 4th poolside party after the June 15th deadline.

These dues are an important part of the HOA, and subsidize all the parties throughout the year. Additionally, by not paying your dues.

All of our committees work very hard to make this a great place to live, and sadly some people choose to take advantage of all the benefits we offer.

In our bi-monthly newsletter, The Foxtales, I have asked, repeatedly, for all homeowners to come to the clubhouse meetings once a month and take part in the discussions. Some of you choose not to attend, and that is unfortunate because these meetings are your forum, and ironically, the place for you to listen to what is going on, and have your say as to what goes on here. Agree, or disagree, this is your community and the choice is yours.”

Thank you for your attention,
 Marylee Feldman

Hi All. Hope everyone is enjoying this warmer weather. All the beautiful blooming shrubs, plants and trees sure are a sight for sore eyes.

I have some fantastic past events to report on. In March we had our fabulous St Patrick’s Day Party that included a very talented group of Irish step dancers and a song by Joe Spano’s granddaughter. April brought our newest event, our Foxwood Village Breakfast, complete with a guest speaker who presented a slide show of historical sights on Long Island. A consensus of the attendees was that it was a resounding success and we will be planning to have another one sometime in the fall.

The Washington DC trip was by all accounts very exciting and informative. Everyone had a great time and although very tired at the end, was in awe of all the venues visited and felt a renewed sense of patriotism.

Here’s what’s coming up:

- June 7th Fri.....Mini Golf Luncheon
- July 4th Thur.....Picnic
- Aug. 6th Tues.....Culinary Inst. of America trip
