Neighbors

210 - Angela & Carlo Pecoraro

“Well, we've been told that Carlo & I have the distinction of being the only people living in Foxwood who came from New Jersey. Carlo and I were born and raised in northern NJ. For you New Yorkers, we were about 10 minutes from the Meadowlands (Giants/Jets Stadium). We moved to the North Fork, first to be near our daughter and two of our four grandchildren, second because we just fell in love with this area, and third Carlo just couldn't resist living so close to all the wineries.

We are both retired now. Well, I am hoping to be semi-retired if I can find a nice three day a week part time job. Before retiring, Carlo was Vice President of sales for an import / export company and I was an accountant / banker. We are both certified high school teachers, Carlo in Social Studies and me in Mathematics. We were both teachers many years ago before going switching careers into the business sector.

We are avid readers, Nelson DeMille being one of our favorite authors. Carlo is a big fan of westerns. His favorites are John Wayne and Gene Autry. He is also a huge Beatle fan especially John Lennon. I love puzzles of any kind and now that I have more time will get back to crocheting. But our favorite past time, of course, is spending time with our grandchildren.

We are very happy to be a part of the Foxwood Village community and hope to make many new friendships. You are sure to see us at the HOA meetings, social events and at the pool in the summer.

#222 – Cathy & Ray Bowles

“Hi, we're finally in Foxwood Village after a year or more of contemplating the 'Big Move'. We lived at the same address in Farmingdale since we were married 47 years ago.

We have 3 children, Oliver (our schnoodle), 10 grandchildren, including 2 sets of twins and 4 grand-doggies.

Ray grew up in Richmond Hill, Queens, and was a member of the Nassau County Police Dept. for 30 years. I grew up in Uniondale and worked in an office for 28 years, and retired 5 days before we moved in to Foxwood. We hope to enjoy our new home, Friends and Foxwood's activities.

We've Got More Mail!

To my Friends & Neighbors in Foxwood,

Irene and I will never be able to thank you enough for all that you did for us during my recent illness.

Thank you all for the phone calls, cards and visits, but mostly for being such wonderful and caring people.

You are all so kind!
Love, John Monahan #246
