Christmas Caroling at Foxwood Village

Six Foxwood residents, Ellen and Paul Spina, Jim and Cathy Hannon, Eileen Moylan, later joined by Marylee Feldman, braved the cold to serenade their neighbors with Christmas Carols on Sunday evening, December 14th. Very few people opened their doors so, after a while, they returned to the clubhouse to warm up with hot cocoa.

Here's to getting a larger group together next year. Sounds like they had fun!
