

Susie

Her name is Susie and she will surely win your heart;
A little Silky Terrier you will love right from the start.
She lives in Foxwood Village with her master, Bill
Together they're a team and she knows the daily drill.
Each morning bright and early before anyone can see,
They take their routine walk so she can make poops and pee.

She runs to her bowl often and always looks to be fed.

Sometimes when she's very tired, she'll curl up in her cozy bed.

She also likes the computer room or the screened room out back on the rug.

She jumps up on the couch when someone's there and looks to get nice and snug.

She likes to listen to the birds and chase the cats away;

Bill makes sure they have plenty to eat as he feeds them every day.

She has a big basket of toys piled up on the kitchen floor;

She plays with them when she's happy and loves when anyone buys her more.

Susie likes to take car rides wherever Bill goes

As she sniffs out the window with her wet, black licorice nose.

She enjoys visiting her neighbors, Al and Lynn, across the street.

Susie is one spoiled puppy always looking for a treat.

She's such a good-natured doggie and loves a massage or belly rub.

She enjoys going into the shower, but doesn't like the bathtub.

Everyone knows Susie as she makes her rounds

When she takes her daily walks around the Foxwood grounds.

She likes to go to Carolyn's house and walk around the big yard.

Getting her to go back home again is beginning to be quite hard.

She's always a big hit when she goes to see a parade.

She loves the attention, sights and sounds and doesn't get afraid.

Someone always takes her picture and she poses - oh! so proud.

Sitting among kids and everyone else, blending right in with the crowd.

She's a precious little girl and means the world to Bill.

Together they have a special bond - it's one they always will.

by Carolyn Smith