followed with an Invocation by Vice-President Bill Austin

President Kevin Finnegan welcomed everyone. A quorum was present.

Kevin gave a short report on Medical Insurance plans ... Medical bottles still available.

Eugene and Ellen Rausch will no longer handle Clubhouse rentals. Remember 2 checks needed for Clubhouse rentals.

Daylite Savings time this weekend ... turn clock back one hour at 2 am Sunday.

Kevin cleaned front Clubhouse closet. Do not leave batteries or cell phones in clubhouse.

Card and Exercise room off limits to anyone under 16 years of age.

Kevin thanked the ladies in the kitchen for all their help at our HOA meetings.

Senior Showcase will be Saturday, November 7th at 11 am in the Clubhouse. Help is needed at 8:30 am to set up tables.

Remember to drive slowly ... too much speeding in our community.

Check website for activities and events.

Cinco de Mayo worked out well.

There will be a New Year's Eve party December 31st in the Clubhouse thanks to Cathy and Jim Hannon.

Bill Fortunato spoke regarding the success of the CPR courses and handed out certificates. More classes are being planned.

Meeting was held in the Clubhouse on Tuesday, October 20th to discuss Ambulance response ... All ambulances have Foxwood maps but keep in mind that Wading River police are not familiar with Foxwood area.

A new photographer is needed with the resignation of our present photographer Marylee Feldman.

Dues can be paid at our November HOA meeting.

Entrance paving will begin within a week or two. Making progress on lights in the Clubhouse parking lot.

Please do not cut white line coming into our Foxwood Community causing cars that are exiting to be cut off. Section I has the right of way leaving our community ... YIELD when entering our community to make a left into Section II.
