

From the Recreation Committee

Hello everyone,

Well, fall is here and summer sadly has come to its end. The pool closed, but the fun continued in our little village due mostly to the efforts of the recreation committee.

Lets begin in September with The ladies tea. The ladies looked great, the food was good and we did get some great photos of all our lovely ladies having a good time. After all, girls just wanna have fun, and so they did.

St. Gennero was really terrific. Who knew that hidden behind the arborvitaes and petunias were some really great chefs? We do now. All I can say is wow, the food was amazing. Bill Fortunato had song sheets and we had a volunteer chorus of the Foxwood singers, singing along to our favorite Italian hits.

And not surprising, Halloween was a blast. There were an array of exciting and very original costumes, along with the old favorites just for the fun of it. The dinner was, by all accounts, excellent and in very generous portions. Everyone seemed to agree that everything was just what we have come to expect from the rec committee.

Prizes for costumes went to: Janet Bennardo for best female. Joe Buccellato for best man and for the best couple there was an unprecedented tie. Bill and Margret Fortunato and Joe and Paula Buccellato.

Beautiful mums were donated to us from Betty and Ed Powers' daughter-in-law, and the youngest one at their table took this prize home. Thank you also went to Bill Ingrassia for donating his laughing witch which greeted us all at the door. And Bob and Janet for the laughing skeleton.

So again, if you missed it, it was indeed your loss.

So once again, I invite those of you who are new, and those of you who would like to attend one of our parties and just never got around to it, to do so soon. Everyone will tell you that a good time is had by all.

The Christmas social on Dec 7 (look for the flyer) is a great way to meet and greet your new neighbors. New people please bring an ornament with your house number on it so we can put it on the tree.

The dinner dance (also look for the flyer) is in the Vineyard. This is a really lovely evening that all will enjoy.

See you there,

Marylee Feldman

Recreation committee

Every time I thought I was being rejected for something good I was actually being re-directed to something better.

Joe Spano #97