FROM THE PRESIDENT

Hello fellow residents,

Well it finally happened. The sun has shown itself and spring has “sprung.” I hope everyone is enjoying the warm weather.

With summer right around the corner I want to caution everyone to watch out for overexposure to the sun and dehydration from working in the heat.

I would like to remind everyone that your sprinklers should go on early in the morning and only every other day. If you can't adjust your automatic sprinkler timer please call the office and they will provide assistance.

Remember the upcoming events, especially the July 4th party which is only a month away.

The next HOA Meeting is June 28th. After the summer break, the next meeting is September 27th.

I would like to remind everyone that if you have any issues, problems or suggestions don't hesitate to contact me or any other Board member.

Sincerely,

Kevin Finnegan, HOA President

PS We are still looking for a volunteer to become our community Photographer. In addition there are still a couple of openings on the Recreation Committee. If anyone is interested, please call me.

FROM THE EDITOR

By the time this issue is distributed the pool should be open, bocce should be underway, and warm weather should be the norm. I hope everyone has the chance to spend time enjoying the outdoors.

I want to thank everyone for their patience as I work out the kinks. If anyone needed help with the cross word puzzle in the last issue you might have noticed that the solution didn't quite fit the puzzle. April Fool! Well — not really — the correct solution is on the This and That page of this issue.

There were a couple of other goofs as well and I hope they didn't cause too much confusion.

This issue should be cleaner thanks to the help of MaryLee Feldman, Margaret Fortunato, and Mary Lazoryk in proof reading the issue before it got printed. They did a fabulous job of catching quite a few goofs.

You will no doubt notice the scarcity of photographs in this issue. Though there were limited events for photo opportunities, the main reason is that we still do not have anyone to take the photos. If anyone is interested in taking pictures for our community please contact any member of the HOA Executive Board.

Additionally, I would appreciate some feed back on the items in Fox Tales in general. I've tried to continue including material that had been present in the past issues but I would like to hear from readers about any improvements or additions that you would like to see. Please let me know in person, by e-mail (editor4foxtales@gmail.com), or drop a note to me in the mail box in the club house.

Enjoy the issue and enjoy the summer.

Bill Austin, Editor, Fox Tales

From the Recreation Committee

Hello everyone.

I hope you all had a fun time at the horse racing that took place in the clubhouse. As usual, Jim Windsor did a great job in calling the races and made the night exciting and entertaining.

The next upcoming event is July 4th. Hopefully the weather will be kind and we can celebrate outside. The food is delicious and the fun is all day, so I hope you can join us at the pool.

The 7 night Canada/New England Cruise is still open if you would like to sign up. Jim and Cathy do a lovely job with every trip so this one should be as great as the others.

Look for upcoming events at the mailboxes.

If you are interested in joining the recreation committee, you can call anyone of us and we will be happy to explain it to you.

Thank you for your attention,

MaryLee Feldman

HOA Openings

Photographer: It's always fun to see photos of how we enjoy the various community events. There is an opening for one or more individuals to take pictures of our neighbors as we enjoy parties, trips, and other activities. If you are interested please contact Kevin Finnegan or any member of the HOA executive board.

Traffic & Safety: Safety in our community is an important part of what makes Foxwood Village a great place to live. The individual who acts as Traffic & Safety officer makes sure that the area in and around Foxwood Village is as safe as practical. This includes reporting unsafe traffic related issues, such as missing signage or unsafe road conditions, to Foxwood management or the town. If anyone is interested in this position please contact Kevin Finnegan or any member of the HOA executive board.

From the Lighter Side: WHY??? (Submitted by Bob Edwards)

Why do people order double cheeseburgers, large fries and a diet coke?

Why don't you ever see the headline, "Psychic wins lottery?"

Why is abbreviated such a long word?

Why didn't Noah swat those mosquitoes?

Why don't sheep shrink when it rains?

If flying is so safe, why do they call the airport the terminal?

Why isn't there mouse flavored cat food?

Why is the time of day with the slowest traffic called rush hour?

PLEASE REMEMBER: When you rent the clubhouse: The Card Room, Exercise room and Library are not to be used by your guests.

BOOK SIGNING

Bill Batcher would like to invite all his Foxwood friends to a reading/signing of his new book of poems: Imaginings. It will take place in the clubhouse on Thursday, June 9, at 2:00 PM. The book, which features photographs by Lyn Tyler, is available on Amazon or from Bill, #133.

BRIDGE

As a new player of Bridge, I would like to invite our neighbors to try out this exciting card game. Its challenging, but not so much as you wont enjoy it. I think you should all give it a look see and sit in a few rounds to decide if you would like to join us. Right now our group has 4 members; Marylee Feldman, Ron and Thelma Stanza, and Laura Bott.

Right now, we play on Wednesday morning in the pool room at 11:30 am. The game needs 4 players, so come on in and take a look. I think you will enjoy this.

Hope to see you there! MaryLee Feldman

ABOUT TURKEYS

Foxwood Residents,

Anyone interested in getting an update on the ongoing increase of the turkey population here at Foxwood Village, please feel free to contact Chip Hamilton at FREDERICK.HAMILTON@DEC.NY.GOV. He will be happy to address your concerns and update you on the ongoing problem.

YARD SALE

The Foxwood Village yard sale will be held on Saturday, September 17th (rain date September 18th). Contact Bob and Janet Edwards #276 for further information and to register. There is a fee of $5 per table.

EMERGENCY CONTACT INFORMATION (from Peter)

Please remember to stop by the office to update your emergency contact information. In the event of an emergency where a resident is incapacitated police or emergency personnel attempt to find contact information from the office. If your information is not up to date this could result in a significant delay that may impact the proper treatment you may need.

Emergency contact forms are available in the office. Please take a few moments to provide this information for your own protection.

SCAM ALERT

Scammers are trying to get personal information from people by pretending to help with applications for disability benefits and claims. A recent alert from the Social Security Inspector General warns of this phishing scam, and — whether or not you've started an application for benefits — these scammers could contact you. They're taking a shot in the dark, hoping that you have started an application, and hoping you'll give them a little more info over the phone. To "complete the process," they might ask you to give, or confirm, your Social Security number or bank account numbers.

If scammers get your information, you could face identity theft and benefit theft. So here are a few things you can do to help protect yourself:

- Never give your Social Security number or account numbers to someone who calls you.
- Don't wire money or send money using a prepaid debit card. In fact, never pay someone who calls out of the blue.
- If you have disability benefits, regularly check their status, and review your statements to make sure they're right.

Pressured to provide your information? That's a sure sign of a scam. Hang up immediately and report it to the Social Security Fraud Hotline and the FTC.

If you have questions about disability benefits, or get calls offering help with them, call the Social Security Administration at 1-800-772-1213.

Dear Friends and Neighbors

*We would like to thank our Foxwood friends who sent cards, mass cards, took time out to come to the funeral home and/or Mass for our Beloved Daughter-in-Law Christine Galasso. With Broken Hearts we again Thank You. God Bless!
Larry & Arline Galasso*

My wife Irene and I moved into Foxwood Village #109 in December, 1996. After 36 beautiful years my wife suddenly passed away in January 1998.

Playing golf with the Foxwood group I met Mary Sherin, a much better golfer than me. I got a little better playing 3 days a week with her. She gave a lot of pointers. We got engaged but never married. Mary buried 2 husbands already. After 17 years of good times Mary passed away.

I'm moving to Florida next month and just want to say thank you for the fun and friendship we had living here. Good luck to all and God bless.

Prayer for Healing

My name is Dan DiScioscia and I have been a resident of Foxwood Village for some sixteen years. I have been praying for the sick for over thirty years and have seen God do wondrous and even miraculous healings. I am a Christian and have been walking with Jesus a little over thirty one years.

I will be available to pray with you, at the clubhouse, Tuesdays from 10:00 AM till 1:00 PM.

Jesus said, "Come all who are weary and heavy laden and I will give you rest."

So, come and receive a touch of God's love for you.

Letter to Editor:

Recently with all the talk about the Turkeys and other animals inhabiting our community, it made me take stock of what made us leave the suburbs to move out East to Calverton. The first word that came to mind was for the "countryside". While I'll admit it is a far cry from what it was maybe 30 years ago or the small towns that can be found in upstate New York; there is no doubt that compared to the 5 boro's of NY or our western neighbor like Nassau County this is indeed the countryside. What does that mean exactly? I conferred with the Oxford Dictionary and it eloquently states that it is "land outside towns and cities, with fields, woods, farms, wild animals, etc." I guess that is as close a description of our hamlet as you could get.

I love seeing the Turkeys roam through my yard. They are wild and free and part of country life and make me feel very relaxed. Once in a while I am blessed to see a deer or 2 nesting in the woods behind my house. They are magnificent. Yes they peck the lawn but so what. It grows in spite of them. There are places free of turkeys and deer. NY City, Nassau and the 5 boroughs are filled with such places. I love the trees, I love the animals, I love the open space which they lack. By living so far out here in the countryside one would think a person must enjoy the fruits of nature. Every time we change nature we also change the eco-system. The turkeys eat the grub worms; they serve a purpose.

God has blessed us with maybe being the last people to see this open space in all its splendored glory before they are fully developed and become another victim of urban colonization. Maybe we shouldn't rush it along.

Yet Even More Cards & Letters

To Janet Bennardo, Bill Heiberger & all of the Recreation Committee:

A Big "Thank You" for a great night of entertainment by "Tommy Sullivan". He has a unique voice, and therefore can sing just about any song as good as the artist who recorded the song.

We were all either up dancing or just sitting and enjoying listening to all the great songs from the past !

Remember, without our Entertainment Committee, we would not have such enjoyable evening.

Thanks, Irene and John Monahan

A Little Bit of This and A Little Bit of That

Ah, spring!

The season when a young turkey's thoughts turn to compact cars.

That's what happened in Mt. Laurel, N.J., where a jake — an adolescent male turkey — fell in love with a two month-old Civic and would not let anyone near it.

"We named him Patrick the Love-Struck Turkey," said Betty Ann DiGiacomo whose son owns the vehicle.

This misdirected courtship is so common during mating season that turkey experts dub it "crazy-jake behavior."

Before disappearing into the woods nearby, Patrick was eyeing the import like he was shopping for a car," DiGiacomo said.

S.T.O.P. (Stop Throwing Out Pollutants) collection May 14. Thanks to Joe Graham (#215), Bob Boswell (#235) and Jerry Dolson (#251) for driving around Foxwood Village to pick everything up and making sure it was dropped off for proper disposal. Keeping our community green!

Salmon

May marks the start of Salmon season in the remote waters of Alaska. Salmon is rich in flavor beautiful in color, succulent in texture, and one of the best natural sources of heart- healthy omega-3 fatty acids. Following, I have listed irresistible dishes using not only the fresh variety but frozen, canned, and smoked salmon.

Wild Salmon, which spends most of its life in the open ocean, can be sustainably harvested once it returns to its spawning grounds. Most of what we enjoy today is from Alaska or Washington's Puget Sound. King Salmon is prized for its full, buttery flavor, while Sockeye is lighter in taste and firmer in texture. Coho is the mildest and the most delicate of the common fresh varieties.

Fresh Salmon:

Before cooking, remove any small bones: Run your finger along the thickest part of the fillet, working from head to tail to detect them. Then carefully remove them with needle-nose pliers.

Crisp Grilled Salmon With Fennel - Olive Relish. Serves 4.

- Vegetable oil for brushing
 - 1 wild Salmon, skin on (about 1 - 2 pounds and 1 inch thick)
 - Extra virgin olive oil for drizzling
 - Coarse salt and freshly ground pepper
 - 1 lemon cut into rounds
 - Fennel fronds (optional)
 - Fennel & Olive Relish (see recipe below)
1. Heat grill to medium. Brush grates with vegetable oil.
 2. Drizzle both sides of salmon with olive oil. Season with salt and pepper.
 3. Place salmon on grill, skin side down, and cover.
 4. Grill without moving fish until just opaque in center and skin is crisp — 7 to 9 minutes.
 5. Using 2 spatulas transfer fish to a platter.
 6. Drizzle lemon rounds with olive oil. Grill until lightly charred — about 2 minutes a side.
 7. Transfer to platter. Sprinkle with fennel fronds. Serve with relish.

Fennel & Olive Relish. Makes about 1 cup.

- ½ small fennel bulb, cored and finely diced (about 1 cup)
- 10 large brine-cured green olives, such as Castelvetrano or Cerignola, pitted and chopped (½ cup)
- ¼ cup finely diced red onion
- ½ cup coarsely chopped fresh flat-leaf parsley
- 6 tablespoons extra virgin olive oil
- 3 tablespoons fresh lemon juice
- 1 dried Chile de_árbol, stemmed and crumbled
- Coarse salt

Combine first seven ingredients in a bowl, and season with salt.

Frozen Salmon:

Some Wild Salmon is caught and immediately flash frozen, which helps preserve its natural texture flavor, and nutrition. What's more, it's widely available in grocery stores; packaged individually or sold in bulk. Stock your freezer with this variety and you'll be able to make good — and good for you — meals any day of the week.

Canned Salmon:

For a convenient, inexpensive, and healthy source of protein look no further than canned Wild Salmon. It's higher in omega-3's than tuna and, ounce for ounce, costs about the same. Most of what you'll find is Pink Salmon that refers to the color and species which is rarely sold fresh. For a meatier taste try Sockeye — often labeled Red Salmon. Premium canned Salmon comes without skin and bones, while regular canned Salmon includes its skin (full of omega-3s) and soft edible calcium rich bones. Either type can be used in the following recipe.

Pan Fried Salmon Cakes — Makes 8

- 3 ounces large hard pretzels, such as Pennsylvania Dutch
 - ½ cup mayonnaise
 - 1 large egg lightly beaten
 - ¼ cup chopped fresh dill — plus more for sprinkling
 - ¼ cup chopped scallions
 - 2 lemons — 1 zested and 1 cut into wedges for serving
 - 1 can (14 ounces) wild salmon, drained
 - 2 tablespoons of vegetable oil

1. Break pretzels into pieces. Pulse in a food processor until finely ground (should yield about ½ cup).
2. In a medium bowl combine mayonnaise, egg, dill, scallions, and lemon zest.
3. Fold in ground pretzels and Salmon until just combined.
4. Cover and refrigerate until firm — about 30 minutes.
5. Using a ¼ cup measure form mixture into 8 cakes, each about ½ inch thick.
6. Heat a large skillet over medium high. Add 1 tablespoon oil.
7. Cook 4 cakes, flipping once, until golden brown and crisp — about 3 minutes a side.
8. Repeat with remaining oil and cakes.
9. Sprinkle with dill and serve with lemon wedges.

About Bananas

Did you know —

- A banana starts out at 90% starch and 10% sugar. It ends up being 10% starch and 90% sugar.
- Bananas can be placed at any point inside of a grocery store and they will sell equally well.

Is a banana a fruit or a herb?

Both. A banana (the yellow thing you peel and eat) is undoubtedly a fruit (containing the seeds of the plant), though since commercially grown banana plants are sterile, the seeds are reduced to little specks. The banana plant is called a 'banana tree' in popular use, but it's technically regarded as a herbaceous plant (or 'herb'), not a tree, because the stem does not contain true woody tissue.

Late one night a mugger wearing a mask stopped a well-dressed man and stuck a gun in his ribs. "Give me your money," he demanded. Scandalized, the man replied, "You can't do this – I'm a US Congressman!" "Oh! In that case," smiled the robber, "Give me MY money!"

SUMMER

Grandkids Then and Now

An interesting comparison between how kids are raised now vs. how we (as seniors) probably raised our own kids. This was printed in the May issue of AARP Bulletin.

	Then	Now
Pastimes	Eating, drinking, peeing and pooping, often simultaneously.	Swim classes at six months, gymnastics at one year.
Food	Whatever could be mashed — like last night’s spicy meatballs.	Gluten-free and grass-fed only, if you please.
Hygiene	“Don’t let the baby eat anything that’s been on the floor longer than three hours.”	“You want to hold the baby? Sure — mind wearing these surgical gloves?”
Halloween Candy	“Because I’m the mother, and I say you can’t eat it all tonight!”	Lovingly explain the glycemic index until Junior understands and accepts your point of view.
TV	All hail the world’s cheapest baby-sitter!	No screen time before age 2; you wanna rot his brain?!
Birthdays	Eating candy apples.	Gift bags from Apple.
Babysitters	You hired the teen next door, then prayed the house wouldn’t reek of pot when you got home.	Vetted by Homeland Security, then tracked by nanny cam.
Boomerang Kids	“We changed the locks!”	Your college grad moves home while “looking for a job” — which suspiciously mimics playing video games.
Summer Vacation	One week at the country home of elderly relatives.	One week at the country home of Pliny the Elder — in Pompeii
Discipline	“I hope your brats are twice as bad!”	“Schuyler, I’m not disappointed in you personally; I’m disappointed in your action of setting the cat on fire.”
Clothing	Hand-me-downs, like that pink tutu my son still holds against me. (Hey, the price was right!)	That Dolce & Gabbana outfit was just $575?
Entertaining	Kids sat at the kids’ table, where the rule was “No comments from the peanut gallery!”	Kids join the guests at the dinner table. The conversation is with and about them.

This and That

Married Four Times

The local news station was interviewing an 80-year-old lady because she had just gotten married for the fourth time.

The interviewer asked her questions about her life, about what it felt like to be marrying again at 80, and then about her new husband's occupation. "He's a funeral director," she answered. "Interesting," the newsman thought...

He then asked her if she wouldn't mind telling him a little about her first three husbands and what they did for a living.

She paused for a few moments, needing time to reflect on all those years. After a short time, a smile came to her face and she answered proudly, explaining that she had first married a banker when she was in her 20's, then a circus ringmaster when in her 40's, and a preacher when in her 60's, and now - in her 80's - a funeral director.

The interviewer looked at her, quite astonished, and asked why she had married four men with such diverse careers.

(Wait for it...)

- She smiled and explained, "I married one for the money, two for the show, three to get ready, and four to go."

BEWARE!

There is a new danger here in Foxwood Village that we all should be aware of. Dave got himself a bike and can be seen peddling around the neighborhood. Unfortunately he hasn't quite mastered the arts of steering and balance yet, so beware!

Actually, Dave is doing quite well riding and is getting a lot of good exercise. All the best, Dave. Enjoy the ride!
