Selling your Home?

Before choosing to list your home with an outside broker, here are few things to consider:

- Foxwood Village Sales DOES list your home on Multiple Listing Service (MLS)
- It is important to know that Homes which are listed on MLS through an outside broker CANNOT be shown by our sales staff
- All potential buyers must still be approved for residency by our management
- All closings must still take place at the Foxwood Village office
- When Foxwood Village Sales is not the listing broker, a $500.00 closing fee will be assessed as our staff must still process paperwork at the closing
- It is important to recognize that a home sale in a land lease community is different than a traditional real estate sale, and many outside brokers are not familiar with the process. Our staff are experts in these type of transactions and can handle the sale of your home in a smooth and efficient manner.

From The President

Hello Fellow Homeowners

By the time you read this I hope that “spring has sprung”. Overall, I guess we should consider ourselves pretty lucky in that the winter was pretty mild with only a few inches of snow and a few cold days.

Let’s put away the snow shovels and start our spring clean-up. Before you know it the trees will begin to bloom and the flowers will start to blossom.

Over the last two months we had a successful Valentine’s Luncheon and St. Patrick’s Day Party (thank you recreation committee). Before the next issue of Foxtales the Bocce season will have begun, Horseshoes on Saturday mornings and Golf on Tuesday afternoons will be in full swing.

HOA Meetings are scheduled for April 23rd, May 28th and June 25th. After the June meeting we have a summer break with the next scheduled meeting being September 24th.

A reminder to all is to slow down and don’t assume you have the right-of-way at intersections. Please remind your guests of the 15 mph speed limit.

If you have any issues, problems or suggestions please don’t hesitate to contact me or any other Board member.

Sincerely,

Kevin Finnegan, HOA President

From The Editor

Ah, Spring!

We were thankfully blessed with a mild winter. It was cold, but not much snow.

Living on Long Island we have the pleasure of viewing all of nature’s beauty. The seasons are a reminder to use, 365 days a year, that things change, yet life goes on. Just when the days are darkest and short, we hang on. We adjust our lives and schedules, we literally hibernate! And now spring has arrived, right on schedule. Nature is awakening and so is Foxwood Village & all of our residents.

Enjoy the light, the warmth, and rebirth of and the beautiful community we live in.

Thank you to Carol Proven for finding and writing about our “Resident of the Month”. She’s doing a great job.

Dave and Maryann Soika.

To Everyone at Joseph's Storehouse (forwarded to Foxwood Village)

This note is an attempt to express our gratitude for the blessings you bestowed upon our family during the holiday season. The generousities afforded to us at our time of need were magnificent! Even though my husband was out of work due to an injury, the children didn't miss out on any of our family traditions. From food to gifts, all was provided. We can ever really put into appropriate words what it meant to have you at our side.

Thank you from the bottom of our hearts!

The Penna Family

Dear Foxwood Friends,

I want to thank everyone for all the prayers, cards, food and flowers while I was hospitalized. I am now recovering and very thankful to know I have such caring friends who live at Foxwood Village.

Again, many thanks,

Helen Gugler

To Our Recreation Committee,

Thank you for a fun filled St. Patrick's Day dinner. The decorations were festive, the food was fabulous and the dancers were great. A special thank you to Cathy & Jim Hannon who did so much to make the evening flow smoothly.

RESIDENT OF THE MONTH

Margaret Regan

#259

Submitted by Carol Proven

One of the most delightful and pleasant ladies you ever want to meet is Margaret Regan. She has a warm smile that makes you feel comfortable. I felt that I had so much in common with her.

Margaret was born in Brooklyn. She married Daniel and they decided to move to Mastic, Long Island. It was there that they raised their four children, two boys and two girls. And it was there that they owned and operated their restaurant name Bel Aire for 42 years. When they decided it was time to downsize and move, they considered Foxwood Village. Daniel had liked the idea of the basement availability.

Margaret has enjoyed living here for the past 15 years. She says she has good neighbors and loves the activities that the Clubhouse has to offer. She enjoys the trips and parties that the Recreation Committee provides. She has taken advantage of the pool activities and is presently active with her friends in Bingo and the Looming Club for knitting and crocheting. I must add that she does beautiful crocheting. Margaret has 4 granddaughters that add spice to her life. If you have never met her give her a call and say “hello”.

Carol Proven Unit #20

Caffeine in Coffee

According to the Doka Coffee Plantation located in Costa Rica the amount of caffeine in the darkest roast coffee (Espresso) is no higher than their breakfast blend. The belief that the dark roasts have more caffeine is a common misconception caused by the stronger taste.

Stronger tasting coffee has been roasted 3 times longer than breakfast blends. It can also be because a better bean has been used.

Robusta and Arabica are the 2 types of beans grown. Arabica are the higher grade and more expensive because of the delicate nature. They are susceptible to disease.

Robusta beans are hearty and disease resistant and have more caffeine and less sugar but are not the top quality.

Picking less than full ripe beans can lower the quality of the coffee.

Bottom line: while a coffee may taste stronger it is not higher in caffeine and won't rev you up.

Decaffeinated Coffee: The Germans are one of the biggest removers of caffeine because they have a non chemical process. They do it with water. It is done for the coffee growers for little to no cost. The growers in turn sell the caffeine to companies like Coca Cola, Pepsi and candy makers.

If the coffee is decaffeinated by water it usually will say it on the package. No company will say it was done with chemicals on the package.

Cooks' Corner

By Catherine Hannon

The following is a story from the Newsday dining section

FYI:

Americans love chicken and eat an average of 92 pounds per person of the bird each year. Chicken is high in protein, low in fat and rich in nutrients including iron, zinc and vitamin B. By 1985, people were eating more chicken than pork for the first time in American history. By 1992, domestic chicken consumption surpassed beef consumption.

According to the USDA, the retail price of beef today averages about $5.70 a pound, while chicken averages $1.85 a pound.

Chickens are the closest living relatives of the Tyrannosaurus Rex.

The United States has more than 3,200 restaurants dedicated primarily to chicken wings.

Basic Chicken Stock:

8 pounds chicken legs, backs and/or wings

1 carrot, trimmed

1 onion, peeled

1 parsnip, trimmed

1 bunch dill or parsley

7 quarts water

Salt

Ground pepper

1. Combine the chicken, carrots, parsnip, onion and dill or parsley in a 12 quart stock pot. Bring to a boil. Lower the heat to a simmer and cook, using a skimmer to remove any gray foam that rises to the surface. Simmer for 4 hours.

2. Place a smaller stockpot in your sink and place a fine mesh strainer in the stockpot. Carefully pour hot stock through strainer and into pot, pressing down on the chicken and vegetables. Discard the solids. Stir in salt and pepper to taste. Refrigerate for up to 3 days and skim the fat from the top of the pot before using. Alternatively, freeze the stock in large or 2 small containers until ready to use. Makes about 4 quarts.

Once you've made chicken stock, you can use it to make a variety of chicken soups.

MATZO ball soup: warm 2 quarts stock: make matzo balls according to directions on a package of matzo meal and add to warm stock along with handfuls of baby carrots. Before serving, simmer until the carrots are softened, about 10 minutes.

ITALIAN wedding soup: Brown small meatballs on all sides and add to 1 quart simmering stock along with 1/2 cup small pasta (orzo, pastina). Simmer until meatballs and pasta are cooked through, about 10 minutes.

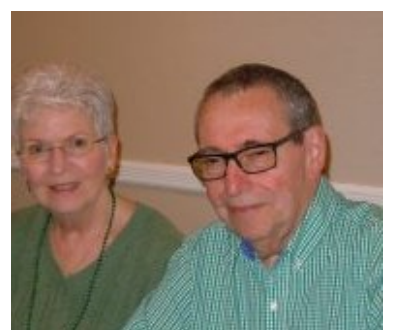

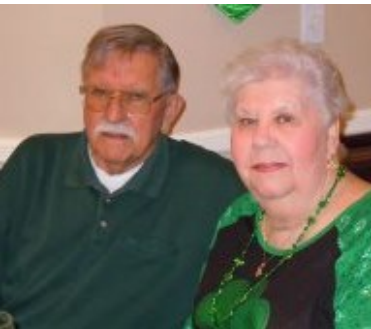

Stir in 8 baby spinach (or baby kale) leaves and cook stirring, until wilted. Serve with grated Parmesan cheese the side.
