PRESIDENT'S LETTER

Hello Fellow Residents

It's hard to believe that summer is over and fall is here. Things here at Foxwood seem to be moving along with no real issues.

The pool was open for three months and was enjoyed by several residents and their grandchildren.

Flu shots (pneumonia and shingles shots also) are scheduled for October 12th in the Clubhouse. They will be administered by a CVS Pharmacist. Contact Kevin Finnegan (631-284-9065) if you haven't already scheduled your shot.

The Yard Sale was successful, thanks to Laurie and Glenn Munson

The Medication take back held in August was successful with over 25 pounds of old and outdated drugs collected.

The recreation Committee is making plans for the Halloween Party, Veterans Day Breakfast, Christmas Social on December 4th and the Holiday Party at Giorgio's on December 15th. Please mark your calendars.

We are still using the Email system to communicate with our residents. If you haven't gotten any emails please make sure that I have your email address or one of your children's.

The next HOA MEETING is October 25th.

Remember to contact our Foxtail's advertisers for estimates. Their advertising payments allow us to provide subsidies for various functions throughout the year.

If there are any issues, problems or questions don't hesitate to contact me or any other Board Member.

Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

Kevin Finnegan, HOA President

Note from the Editor

There is a metal box labeled "Fox Tales" on the front porch of #81 for anyone to drop off any articles, notes, or letters for next issue. Please submit all materials by the 23rd of the month before each issue. This gives me time to finish before the publishing deadline.

Thank you.

Susan Cordaro, Editor, Fox Tales

Book Club

The book club met in August to discuss Pachinko, an epic historical novel that follows four generations of a Korean family who move to Japan. The book covers almost eighty years of the struggles of this Korean family as they adapt to their new life in a hostile and threatening environment.

Although the book was lengthy and used some names and words that were difficult to retain, we agreed that this novel gave us new knowledge and understanding of a culture we had not yet experienced. It seems that historical fiction is one of our favorite genres since we are always learning something new while we enjoy the pleasure of reading.

Our September meeting had to be delayed, so our critique of Alas, Babylon was not available in time for this issue of Foxtales.

We continue to meet on the third Wednesday of every month at 2:00 PM in the clubhouse. All are welcome to join us, so come to a meeting, you might be pleasantly surprised!

“A book is a gift you can open again and again.”

— Garrison Keillor

To all my mom's friends at Foxwood Village,

Thank you very much for your cards and words of condolence for my mother Nellie Trimore.

My parents loved living in Foxwood Village. It's a truly beautiful place to live. The people really make Foxwood a place to call home. They made so many wonderful friends. I'll always treasure the memories of Foxwood my mother and father shared with me.

Sincerely,

Janice, Bob Flood and family

SHEET PAN SUPPERS

The following fuss free one pan dinners provide great meals without the pile of dishes at the end of the night.

Halibut with potatoes and Brussels sprouts

Serves 4

2 Tbsp. olive oil

2 Tbsp. Chopped mixed fresh herbs (such as parsley, thyme, and rosemary) kosher salt and pepper

1 lb. fingerling potatoes (about 20) halved

1lb Brussels sprouts (about 10) trimmed and quartered

1 large shallot, cut into wedges

1/2 lbs. halibut fillet

1. Heat oven to 425f. In small bowl, whisk together oil, herbs, 3/4 tsp. Salt, and 1/2 tsp pepper.

2. On large rimmed baking sheet, toss potatoes, Brussels sprouts, and shallot with half of oil mixture. Arrange potatoes cut sides down, roast 15. Minutes.

3. Remove pan from oven and arrange fish on top of vegetables. Brush fish with remaining oil mixture and roast until potatoes are golden brown and tender and fish is opaque through-out. 12 to 15 minutes more.

370 per serving.

Chicken Tikka with cauliflower and chickpeas

Serves 4

4 small chicken legs, split

1 cup prepared tikka Marsala sauce

1/2 medium cauliflower (1 1/4 lbs.) cut into small florets

12 oz carrots, cut into 3/4inch chunks

1cup canned chickpeas, rinsed

1 Tbsp olive oil

1tsp masala, kosher salt, and pepper

1/2 red onion

1/4 cup plain low-fat yogurt

1/4 cup fresh cilantro leaves, chopped

Lemon wedges for serving

1. Place chicken and tikka masala sauce. in resealable plastic bag. Seal and toss to coat; let sit 30 minutes or refrigerate overnight.

2. Heat oven to 425 F. On large, rimmed baking sheet, toss cauliflower, carrots, and chickpeas with oil, masala, and 1/2 tsp. Each salt and pepper.

3. Remove chicken from bag, letting excess marinade drip off and nestle among vegetables: discard marinade. Roast until chicken is cooked through. 30 to 35 minutes.

Enjoy your meals!

TIP: To tame some of the bite of raw onions, soak thin slices in cold water for at least 10 minutes before draining and pat dry.
